Dear Joey:

As the CEO of The Greenwood Village Chamber of Commerce, I recently had occasion to advocate on behalf of one of our members – Denver Lincoln Limousine regarding a situation that arose at Denver International Airport regarding a summons that was issued regarding PUC and licensing.

Once Andy Poppenberg explained the situation to me, I knew that the situation was handled in a way that was not in actual accordance with regulations. Prior to coming to the Chamber, I retired from Denver PD with over 27 years of service and have extensive background and understanding of the licensing ordinances regarding limousines and taxis.

I arranged a meeting with officials from the Denver Mayor's Office as well as DIA Administration to help shed light on the matter. We discussed the situation and I noted that the City Attorney's Office had dismissed the summons because their review showed that it should not have been issued originally. They went back to their respective departments and made procedural changes based on our conversations.

Since that time, Denver PD and Denver International Airport have also altered their policy based on clarification by PUC regarding licensing tabs and should the same situation arise today, there would be no summons issued.

All of the staff at Denver Lincoln Limousine are properly licensed to operate anywhere in the City of Denver including Denver International Airport as I have personally observed each driver's herdic card.

I would like to provide a personal endorsement of the level of service and trust I have for Denver Lincoln Limousine. I am also the Director of Public Affairs for a large radio station group in Denver. From May 21-23, we hosted Former Alaska Governor and 2008 Vice-Presidential candidate Sarah Palin for a large event. With my police background, I was tasked with security management for the event which included transporting her as well as her family to and from the airport as well as to and from the hotel and event venues over the course of the weekend.

I could have chosen any one of the many limo services to handle this detail but chose Denver Lincoln Limousine because of their performance and reliability at events such as the NBA All-Star Game in 2005 and Democratic National Convention in 2008. These were high profile, high security events that tapped 100% of the limousine availability in this city. My number 1 priority for choosing them was knowing that their number 1 priority was the safety of the passengers and on-time response.

I personally know every driver and have absolute trust in each one – not only for clients like Sarah Palin but I trust them with the well-being of my own family.

I firmly believe that you can operate under the assumption that there is no better executive transportation company in this town than Denver Lincoln Limousine.
